

Raising God's Kids

House or Home? God's Blueprint for Biblical Parenting By Chip Ingram

Session 1—Is there a Parent in the House (part 1)

Godly parenting begins with

- A) Marrying and being fruitful
- B) Developing clear cut objectives and a plan
- C) Isolating your children from sin

God's Primary agenda for your child is

- A) They will be respected by others
- B) They will be successful and upwardly mobile
- C) They will be Christ like

The only specific commandment given to children is

- A) Do your chores
- B) Obey your parents
- C) Stay out of trouble

We should parent out of

- A) A focused plan
- B) Fear of what other will think of us
- C) Response to our children's disobedience
